

Exam wrapper

Due: One week from today.

This form will help you to analyze your exam performance and fine strategies that work best for you in learning the material for this course. Self-assessing your progress and adjusting your study strategies accordingly is what effective learners tend to do. Please answer the following questions sincerely. Your responses will have no impact on your grade, but they will inform your instructional team about how we can best support your learning. We will return your completed form before the next exam so that you can use your own responses to guide your approach to studying next time.

1. Approximately how much time did you spend preparing for this exam? _____
2. Did you get the grade that you expected to receive? _____ If not, was it higher or lower than expected?
3. What percentage of your test-preparation time was spent in each of these activities?

Skimming the course notes		Reading course notes thoroughly
Reviewing your own written notes		Reading the OpenIntro textbook
Rewatching the PDS videos		Reviewing your homework feedback
Doing the practice exam with help		Doing the practice exam on your own

Other (please specify activity and time)

4. As you look over your graded exam, analyze where/how you lost points. Fill in the blanks with the number of points you lost due to each of the following:

Trouble identifying the variables discussed in the question		Trouble remembering what criteria were to be used for each description
Not knowing how to use the R output or graphics provided		Not knowing how to begin a question
Careless mistakes		Lack of understanding of a concept

Other (please describe reason and specify points)

5. Based on your responses to the questions, name three things you plan to do differently in preparing for the next exam. For instance, will you just spend more time, change a specific study habit (if so, name it), try to sharpen some other skill (if so, name it), do your homework differently, use other resources more, or something else?

6. What can we do to support your learning and preparation for the next exam?
